

URBAN TWANG

Music Links

<https://soundcloud.com/urbantwang/sets/we-have-cats-and-songs-too>

<https://urbantwang.bandcamp.com/album/greatest-misses>

All Our Links In One Place

linktr.ee/urbantwang

Résumé

Movies:

The Urban Twang song "If Liquor Were a Woman" can be heard in the movie "Almost Salinas". This independent film stars John Mahoney and Virginia Madsen.

Airplay:

Songs from our CDs "Go Call Delia" and "Vintage" have been played on radio locally and internationally including on the late John Peel's Program on the BBC.

Commercial Jingle:

Wrote and performed a commercial jingle for radio airplay, Chicago Park District (Client).

Live on Radio and TV:

WGN Radio & WGN TV
ABC7 Chicago - program "190 North"

Venues:

Park West
The Vic
Schubas
Metro
Double Door
FitzGerald's
Uncommon Ground

Festivals:

Taste of Chicago
CountryFest (Chicago, IL)
Square Roots Fest (Old Town School)
Naperville's Last Fling
North Halsted Market Days
Gold Coast Art Fair
Long Grove Chocolate Festival
Woodale Fest (Woodale IL)

Opened For:

Waco Brothers
Slaid Cleaves
Dave Matthews
Dave Alvin
Marshall Tucker Band
Webb Wilder
Johnny Paycheck

Bio

Urban Twang is lead by the quixotic songwriting team of Lead Vocalist Trish Clausen and guitarist Max Twang. Their resumé boasts of opening for national touring acts, songs appearing in indie films, and numerous performances for radio and television.

Urban Twang continues to gather new fans that enjoy their music and live performances.

Aided by these stellar musicians, Urban Twang's current line-up is:

- Trish Clausen - Lead & Harmony Vocals, Mandolin
- Max Twang - Guitar, Mandolin
- Molly Rife - Cello
- Maeve Swan - Harmony & Lead Vocal, Bodhrán
- Carl Lubicz - Bass
- Karen Banks-Lubicz - Harmony & Lead Vocals, Guitar
- Brian Olamit - Drums

1-312-731-1839 • HeyNow@UrbanTwang.com • UrbanTwang.com

linktr.ee/urbantwang